Haywood also says "you are a liar."

Since Evelyn Thaw recited her wrongs upon the witness stand it has become very fashionable.

Mayor Schmitz does not seem to be very successful in making a noise like getting out of jail.

The suspicion is abroad that Col. Wattersen's fled-out candidate has slipped the bridle and scampered.

Vice President Fairbank's refusal of a cocktail proves that he is not as much of an Indian as many suppose.

The English novelist, Ouida, has been placed on a literary pension of $750 a year. Another evidence that talk is cheap.

Desert News: The Washington Herald calls John L. Sullivan, a "mollycoddle". He used to man 'em, but now he coddles 'em.

Almost every state in the Union is having trials under the "unwritten law." Someone should advocate Federal control of this law.

When you see a man running to catch a street car these hot days, you can make up your mind that he is really in a hurry to get somewhere.

"Stick to the Constitution" says the New York Sun. It is alleged that Mr. Roosevelt even goes so far as to take the big stick to it occasionally.

"A shiver went through the passengers" says a realistic writer in a thrilling railroad story. As a matter of fact, it probably was the Pullman porter.

Already the Japs have begun to sketch our forts. If they will only wait a few weeks they will have opportunity to size up our navy too, and do it nearer home.

Vice President Fairbanks refused a cocktail and took a lemonade instead at Spokane, yesterday. Some men do things when away they would not think of doing at home.

Wonder what the feelings of the President were, when he noticed that as soon as he departed for Oyster Bay, the Teddy bears in Washington were marked down to 79 cents.

The growth of beer drinking in France is said to be one of the causes of the present wine-growers' agitation. Naturally the idea of Milwaukeeizing France has brought forth hints of another revolution.

It seems to make a great difference with some men whether an oath has been administered. They seem to be willing to lie without compunction of conscience when not under oath but will stick to the truth when the "I swear" is prefixed.

shirks his part of the world's work the average boy is going to continue sidestepping the job of splitting kindling wood as long as he can.

FROM THE COMMONER.

In addition to the Pennsylvania delegates the Knox boom is weighted down with the endorsement of several Pittsburgh millionaires.

Mr. Rockefeller has paid a fine for "scorching" with his automobile. Up to date he has not paid Texas that fine for "burning them up."

With a $24,000,000 dividend on a $12,000,000 capital the Adams Express company does not seem to be on the eve of bankruptcy.

The New York World, having received the answer to its question, "What is a democrat?" should not blame others because it is not able to grasp it.

In view of the stories they have been forced to wire out, we do not blame the San Francisco telegraphers for striking for shorter hours and better wages.

Senator-elect Gore, of Oklahoma, has been blind since boyhood. But he has been able to see a great many evils perpetrated by the trusts and monopolies.

It strikes the unprejudiced observer that the Japanese are awfully anxious to secure admission into a country where they claim to be so badly treated.

If President Roosevelt wants to tackle a really live question, let him consider for a few moments the ad-depated man who persists in rocking the boat.

A large number of newspapers, owned by men who also own the railroads are explaining why Governor Hughes was right in vetoing the two-cent fare law.

General Funston's remarks about the "unwhipped mob" is in very poor taste. That "unwhipped mob" helps to pay for the Funstonian shoulder-straps.

If Secretary Taft visits the Philippines while his boom is afloat, the Filipinos deserve to be excused if they take it to be an intimation that the franchise is in sight for them.

While cutting a $24,000,000 melon the Adams Express company is putting up a plea of poverty in Nebraska, in order to prevent a twenty-five per cent reduction in express rates.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger is not satisfied with Mr. Bryan's answer to the New York World's question, "What is a democrat?" Some department store manager must have told the Public Ledger.

Funny, isn't it, that when the railroads do want to raise the rates, they do not make inquiry and satisfy the public as to the justice thereof; but when the public reduces rates, the railroads insist upon inquiry.

An expert drilled into the vault of the Pennsylvania state treasury with a common ocean drill in less than a few hours. A lot of other experts were ahead of him, and they used only their fingers and brains.

A paragrapher says that it is undignified for Mr. Bryan to travel with out a secretary. If he traveled with a secretary, when he did not need one, then some paragrapher would think it very undemocratic. Too bad, but it is impossible to please some critics.

THAW NEEDS MORE MONEY

Mother of Harry Thaw Sells Land to Get Ready Cash.

Pittsburg, July 12.—Driven to the last resource for ready money with which to defend Harry K. Thaw, the player of Stanford White, at his next trial, Mrs. William Thaw and the other Thaw girls yesterday sold 1,000 acres of fine prized coal lands to the Mt. Pleasant Coke Co., for a sum approximating $2,000,000.

The transaction created the most profound astonishment in business circles when it was reported here. The lands that were disposed of are located in Mt. Pleasant township, Westmoreland county, Pa., and are the very cream of the coal lands owned by the Thaw estate.

Before William Thaw died he made a clause in his will that these coal lands should not be sold for any purpose whatever, unless it was absolutely necessary. If the family was in need of money and could hold the lands no longer, then they were to be leased on royalty and not sold except as a last resort.

ROB CLERK

OF $3,000

Two Men do Daring Work in Heart of Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, July 12.—Two men entered the pawn shop of Emil Mantel and Charles Medias in the downtown district, and after striking the clerk down with a piece of hose and rendering him unconscious, escaped with plunder valued at $3,000. The clerk, Simon Gold, was fatally hurt. Up to a late hour last night the police have obtained no clue to the identity of the robbers.

At the hospital Gold said that he was preparing to lock up for the night, when two men entered and asked to look at a diamond ring. After purchasing a costly stone the robbers requested that they be shown a suit case, which was stored in the rear of the store. While in the act of showing the suit case, one of the men struck Gold a stinging blow over the head with a piece of hose, rendering him unconscious.

TO DEFEND OHIO MAN

Clarence Darrow, Famous Criminal Lawyer, Will Fight for Kinsman.

Warren, O., July 12.—Clarence Darrow, Chicago criminal lawyer now engaged in defending Haywood at Boise, Idaho, has written that he will come to Warren and defend Alfred Kinsman, charged with murder of George Birrad, Kinsman banker.

A NEW PICTURE OF SECRETARY TAFT.

William Howard Taft, secretary of war and prominent candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, began his career as law reporter for the Cincinnati Times. He was born in Cincinnati Sept. 15, 1857. After practicing law for a few years he held many offices, including that of United States circuit judge, and came into national prominence as civil governor of the Philippine islands. Mr. Taft has been secretary of war since Feb. 1, 1904. He was provisional governor of Cuba last fall, when the United States government was forced to take charge of the affairs of that republic.

REFUSES TO TAKE DARE

Clerk Climbs Tallest Stack in Country—Gets Dizzy and Falls to Death.

Worcester, Mass., July 12.—Refusing to accept a dare, William Lindsay, twenty-one, Timothy Sullivan, twenty-one, and Carl Bjora, fifteen, started to climb the inside of the new 200-foot chimney of the American Steel & Wire Co., to reach the American flag at the top. Eighty feet from the ground Lindsay looked back at his companions, became dizzy, let go his grip and fell, carrying the others with him to the ground. Lindsay was dead when picked up, and the other boys are seriously injured.

The new stack is the tallest in the country, and is said to be next to the highest in the world. Lindsay and Sullivan, clerks in the steel company's offices, and Bjora, an office boy, were admiring the chimney and looking at the flag. Someone suggested that they could not climb to the flag. Without a word, Lindsay started for the chimney and the others followed.

FIGHT THE TRUSTS

People of Texas will Enforce Most Drastic Law Passed by Any State.

Austin, Tex., July 12.—The most drastic anti-trust act enacted in any state goes into effect in Texas today. It provides, in substance, that any person who represents as agent or sell goods made by a trust or combine, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon trial and conviction, shall be punished by a confinement in the penitentiary for from two to ten years.

Its provisions apply to all merchants who sell trust made goods and all persons who may directly be in the employ of such concerns in this state. It is announced by Attorney General R. S. Davidson and his assistant, J. P. Lightfoot, that they intend to enforce the law to the letter.

ATTEMPT TO BLEED ARMY

Two Men at Lowell, Mass. Charged with Illegal Practices.

Boston, July 12.—What government officials claim was a plan to extort $30,000 from the Salvation Army was made public today when Solomon Robitcheck, a dealer in second-hand clothing, of Lowell, and Bennett Silverblatt, a Lowell attorney, were brought before United States Commissioner Hayes and held in bonds of $1000 each on the charge of using the mails in an attempt to defraud. Robitcheck, it is alleged, either wrote or secured possession of a poem casting reflections on the motives and practices of the members of the Salvation Army. It is alleged that a copy of the verses was sent to General William Booth, commander of the army, and was addressed to Salvation Army headquarters in New York. General Booth, being in London, the letter was opened by Ransom Caghill, treasurer of the army. Inclosed with the verses was a letter, in which it is alleged the threat was made to publish the verses and sell them at 5 cents a copy unless the army paid $30,000 to Robitcheck, Silverblatt, according to the contention of the government, acted as Robitcheck's attorney.

RYAN AND BELMONT MAY LOSE CHARTER

New York, July 12.—Justice Plazek of the Supreme court has signed an order directing the Ryan-Belmont traction combine to show cause by July 19, why action should not be instituted to annul its charter on the ground that it is a legal monopoly.
